

Academic Policy Handbook

Greenfield University

Academic Year 2025-2026

1. Attendance Policy

All students must maintain a minimum attendance of 75% in each course to be eligible to sit for the end-semester examination. Attendance is recorded at the start of every lecture and lab session.

If a student's attendance falls below 75%, the following actions are taken:

- 65% to 74%: A warning letter is issued to the student and their guardian.
- 50% to 64%: The student is debarred from the end-semester exam and must re-register for the course.
- Below 50%: The student is placed on academic probation and must meet with the Dean of Student Affairs.

Medical Leave: Students who miss classes due to medical reasons must submit a medical certificate to the Student Affairs Office within 7 working days of returning to campus. Approved medical leave does not count against attendance, up to a maximum of 15 days per semester.

Sports/Cultural Leave: Students representing the university in official sports or cultural events may apply for duty leave through the Sports or Cultural Committee. This must be approved before the event.

Late Arrival: Students arriving more than 10 minutes after the scheduled start time of a class will be marked absent for that session.

2. Grading System

Greenfield University follows a 10-point CGPA grading system.

Grade points are assigned as follows:

- O (Outstanding): 10 points (90% and above)
- A+ (Excellent): 9 points (80% to 89%)
- A (Very Good): 8 points (70% to 79%)
- B+ (Good): 7 points (60% to 69%)
- B (Above Average): 6 points (50% to 59%)
- C (Average): 5 points (40% to 49%)
- F (Fail): 0 points (Below 40%)
- I (Incomplete): Assigned when coursework is not finished due to approved reasons.
- W (Withdrawn): Assigned when a student officially withdraws from a course before the deadline.

SGPA is calculated as the weighted average of grade points earned in a semester. CGPA is the cumulative average across all semesters.

A student must maintain a minimum CGPA of 5.0 to remain in good academic standing. Students falling below 5.0 for two consecutive semesters are placed on academic probation.

Dean's List: Students achieving an SGPA of 9.0 or above in a semester with no backlogs are placed on the Dean's List and receive a certificate of academic excellence.

3. Examination Rules

End-semester examinations are conducted in December (odd semester) and May (even semester).

Examination Schedule: The exam timetable is published on the university portal at least 3 weeks before the exams begin. Students must check the portal regularly for updates.

Hall Tickets: Students must carry their hall ticket and university ID card to every exam. Students without valid identification will not be allowed to enter the examination hall.

Seating Arrangement: Seating arrangements are displayed outside the examination hall 30 minutes before the exam. Students must sit in their assigned seats only.

Rules During Examination:

- Mobile phones and smartwatches are strictly prohibited inside the exam hall.
- Students found with any electronic device will be given zero marks and face disciplinary action.
- Students may bring a transparent water bottle and basic stationery.
- Programmable calculators are not allowed unless specified by the course instructor.
- Students must not communicate with other students during the exam.

Late Entry: Students may enter the exam hall up to 30 minutes after the start time, but no extra time will be given. No student is allowed to leave the hall before 1 hour has elapsed.

Re-evaluation: Students may apply for re-evaluation of answer sheets within 10 days of result publication by paying a fee of Rs. 500 per subject. Results of re-evaluation are final.

Supplementary Exams: Students who fail or miss an exam due to valid reasons may take supplementary exams held in July (for odd semester) and January (for even semester).

4. Academic Integrity and Anti-Plagiarism

Greenfield University takes academic integrity very seriously. All submitted work must be original.

Plagiarism Policy:

- First offense: The student receives zero marks for the assignment and a written warning.
- Second offense: The student fails the course and is referred to the Disciplinary Committee.
- Third offense: The student may face suspension or expulsion from the university.

All project reports and dissertations must be checked through the university's plagiarism detection tool (Turnitin). A similarity index above 25% requires revision and resubmission.

Collusion: Sharing answers, code, or assignment content with other students is considered collusion and is treated as plagiarism.

Citation Requirements: All referenced material must be properly cited using APA or IEEE format as specified by the department. Failure to cite sources is considered academic dishonesty.

5. Course Registration and Withdrawal

Course Registration: Students must register for courses through the university portal during the registration window, which opens 2 weeks before the semester begins. Late registration attracts a fee of Rs. 1000.

Maximum Credits: A student can register for a maximum of 24 credits per semester. Students on the Dean's List may register for up to 27 credits with advisor approval.

Minimum Credits: Full-time students must register for at least 16 credits per semester. Part-time students must register for at least 8 credits.

Course Withdrawal: Students may withdraw from a course without academic penalty within the first 4 weeks of the semester. After week 4, withdrawal results in a 'W' grade on the transcript. Withdrawal after week 8 is not permitted.

Prerequisites: Students must complete all prerequisite courses before registering for advanced courses. The system will block registration if prerequisites are not met. Override requests must be approved by the Head of Department.
